

6. ABILITY OF COMPLETERS TO MEET LICENSING

The College Board Puerto Rico, did not administer the test for the Year 2020 due to the pandemic. It resumed the test for the Year 2021 Below it is presented data for the past 4 years.

TREND: EMH College of Education Licencing rates are always higher than the Puerto Rico island wide population examined by the College Board.

Benchmarks are other PR EPPs passing rates provided by the College Board

Number of candidates approved in General PCMAS and EMH College of Education Specialty Tests, the last 4 years

Tests	2016		2017		2018		2019
	N	% that they approve	N	% that they approve	N	% that they approve	N	% that they approve
General	202	93%	158	97%	158	95%	168	99%
Social Studies / History	6	83%	18	100%	11	100%	10	90%
Spanish	28	89%	15	93%	19	84%	9	100%
English	15	100%	20	90%	28	100%	21	95%
Mathematics	14	93%	3	100%	5	100%	4	100%
Sciences	12	92%	8	100%	5	100%	8	88%

Students from the EMH College of Education of the Río Piedras Campus of the University of Puerto Rico obtain high marks in the Tests for Teacher Certification (PCMAS).

According to the report of the College Board of the administration of the tests in March 2019, the students of the Faculty of Education of the Río Piedras Campus obtained outstanding scores always above the norm at the island level. The results are broken down as follows:

Tests	EMH College of Education	Puerto Rico
	% of approval	% of approval
General	98.8%	89.3%
Social Studies / History	90%	84.8%
Spanish	100%	70.5%
English	95.2%	94.3%
Mathematics	100%	63.8%
Sciences	87.5%	72.8%

We celebrate the academic excellence that has also been recognized by the Department of Education by granting the Teacher Preparation Program of the Faculty of Education the highest distinction of Exemplary among the 38 programs that exist at the island level.

The dean of the College, Dr. Mayra Charriez Cordero congratulates all the students, faculty and administrative staff for the magnificent work done.